Since the passage of the Mushbach bill Washington's Monte Carlo has been practically deserted. They will, in the future, conduct their business on the commission plan, similar to the dodge adopted by the New York bookmakers.

A RELIC.—The family Bible of George Washington's mother, now owned by Mrs. Lewis Washington, of Charlottesville, Va., has been loaned for exhibition at Mount Vernon. It has a cover of home spun cloth put on by its original owner. The Richmond Terminal

Directors of the Richmond Terminal Company voted in New York last night that the $500,000 reorganization plan had been abandoned, but that another plan was being arranged in which the Georgia Central matter was held in abeyance, and that the First National bank party and other bankers had arranged to provide a syndicate to underwrite the plan on the new basis. The Richmond Terminal directors yesterday appointed an executive committee of nine members, consisting of the president, Jno. H. Imman, Geo. J. Smith, W. B. Strong, C. S. Brice, J. C. Mahon, Saml. Thomas, J. G. Moore, James S. Wade, Vice President Calhoun and Vice President Rutherford. The committee should have been appointed last December, but action was deferred waiting for the O. C. committee to proceed with the organization.

This announcement is of importance to every one, for it insures to them for the future one of the purest, most delicate, and most celebrated Whiskies in the world, and those who will take the trouble hereafter to demand the "I.
